Brief Description

The main task of architects is planning, drafting, designing, and executing the construction of buildings.

Creative design constitutes the main focus of the Architecture degree program at TU Darmstadt. There are other constructive, artistic, and historical-scientific areas arranged around it. This links systematic knowledge transfer and creative-playful elements.

Building construction and urban development are considered an entity. These areas are: Historical fundamentals, Design and presentation, Construction and Technology, Building Planning as well as Urban development.
