Sports Management Master of Arts

Sportmanagement (M.A.)

Brief Description

The interdisciplinary Master of Arts programme Sports Management acquaints the students with the contents of law and economics, psychology, and sports science.

The programme thus covers terminology, approaches, methods, and findings of sports science as well as law/-economics. The programme enables the students to work on research or application-oriented projects in the field of sports management and to develop and work on specific research and development problems at this interface.
