

Portuguese as a Second/Foreign Language Course

On-line

August 25th – December 11th
2020

- Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro (PUC-Rio), through the Letters Department and the Central Coordination for International Cooperation, is proud to offer you a great chance to study Portuguese as a Second/Foreign Language with PUC-Rio's team of specialized professors.
- Although the exchange semester that would take place from August to December 2020 has been postponed to next year, due to the COVID-19 pandemics, PUC-Rio will offer the Portuguese as a Second/Foreign Language Course remotely, using both Zoom and Moodle platforms.
- The semester on-line of Portuguese as a Second/Foreign Language is a course for independent students, therefore, students must pay tuition.
- Take this chance to learn or improve your Portuguese skills, and to get ready for an exchange experience at PUC-Rio in the first semester of 2021 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

In case you are planning to study in Rio (March-July 2021), once you finish the on-line course, that includes the teaching of language and cultural aspects of Brazil, you will be anticipating your Portuguese language placement, and being directed to the level you will take once you come to PUC-Rio next year. You will receive an official transcript from the University, displaying your final grade, and number of credits for the ones who pass the course.

Don't miss the unique opportunity:

- ❖ Courses of high academic excellence
- ❖ Transcript providing number of credits earned
- ❖ Five levels of proficiency available
- ❖ Brazilian language and culture aspects involved
