

6th Syros Summer Seminar

International Seminar on e – Journalism,
Culture and Creative Economy

25th of June until the 5th of July 2020

Organizers – Aims

The seminar is being organized by the Communication, Media and Culture Department of Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences with the collaboration of the municipality of Hermoupolis-Syros <https://www.syrosisland.gr/en/place/ermoupolis/> and local cultural and educational institutions. We aim to develop a high quality program of international appeal concerning the disciplines of journalism, new media, culture and creative economy.

Why participate

The current technological and socioeconomic developments bring forth a new reality in the respective fields of communication, culture and economy. For the first time in history, citizens have the means and potential to create content and make it available to an international audience. Simultaneously, an emerging Knowledge - based economy makes the creative sector a crucial pillar of development and offers many opportunities to utilize and promote cultural content in economically efficient ways. The programme emphasizes multi-media production by participants who will work in a collaborative, project-based environment inspired by the vibrant cultural life of the island and the unique architectural features of Hermoupolis. Last year's projects can be accessed in:

Syros: a pearl in the Aegean Sea

Discover the island of Syros, which combines all that makes the Greek islands unforgettable: a rich cultural life, entertainment, long crystal clear beaches, great hospitality and an exquisite local cuisine! Syros' capital is Hermoupolis (city of Hermes, ancient god of commerce, protector of travelers, orators and intellectuals, known for his cunning and wit).

Today, the Ermoupoleia Festival is ranked as one of Greece's cultural events, attracting major artists from all fields, who perform as part of the festival every summer. Of course, a wealth of other cultural events also takes place throughout the year.

If you are athletic there plenty of water sports clubs in many beaches on the island. Nightlife can be fascinating in Hermoupolis where you can enjoy traditional plates and gourmet cuisine, taste delicious cocktails and meet people from every part of the world

Mykonos: One of the most famous Cycladic Islands

Mykonos is Greece's most famous cosmopolitan island, a whitewashed paradise in the heart of the Cyclades. Pay a visit to the church of Panayia Paraportiani, the Town hall and the castle situated above the harbour. Don't forget to visit the Archeological, Folklore and Maritime Museums to take in a little history. One of the most scenic corners of the island is "Little Venice", an 18th century district, dominated by grand captains' mansions with colorful balconies and stylish windows. With balconies perched over the sea, pictures of the famous Italian city spring to mind. The island is a paradise for water sport enthusiasts and clubbing addicts.
